SCOUTING

THE SHOPS with Sally

- Our conscience hurts us.
- Last week we met a Reformist, with fire in his eye and sackcloth and ashes trailing behind, who told us that a Man would always tell the truth regardless of consequences.
- Only cowards, he said, evade issues and beat around bushes. In fact he made us feel so guilty that we went home and got our conscience out from behind the door and dusted it off. It was a bit old-fashioned, but otherwise we thought it would do nicely.
- Then we set out to tell the TRUTH, though the skies should fall upon us. At first it was very

ALL SET FOR GREATER DALY CITY DAYS

Greater Daly City Days, sponsored by the Daly City Record and Shopping News, civic and social organizations and local business men, will swing into action next week in preparation for Daly City's big day at the Exposition Sunday, October 22.

Indians of Rhythm will sound the keynote to Daly City's huge celebration when they appear at the Daly City theatre Friday evening of next week. Merchants are displaying Western hats and other colorful items of Western costume. Grocers are already offering suggestions for those big home-made lunches the majority of local families will take to Treasure Island Sunday. The Daly City Record is planning a special souvenir edition for the occasion and local organizations are making plans for their part in the celebration.

The program for the Day on the Island is planned as follows:

11 a. m.— Welcoming ceremonies on the island to start with a parade in the Court of Pacifica and to terminate at Mission Trails building.

12 Noon— Courtyard of Mission Trails building. Conferring honor of "Mayor of Treasure Island" on Daly City's Mayor Paul G. Selmi, and crowning Barbara Davis, Jefferson Union high school beauty, "Queen of the Day." Introduction of dignitaries.

1 p. m.— Cascade court. Daly City community picnic lunch (everybody bringing his own). Concert by Daly City Band under direction of George Brenner.

3 p. m.—

California auditorium. Musical production by Jefferson Union high school students under direction of Oscar J. Bush. Following this feature, time will be allowed for a brief tour of the island and dinner.

Public Invited To Big Barn Dance

Tomorrow evening, October 14, is the date set for one of the most gala affairs planned this season—a huge old-fashioned barn dance, sponsored by El Carmelo Parlors No. 256 and 181, Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West. The party will be held at Colombo hall, Colma.

Members of the dance committee include Lucille Young, Kay O'Brien, Evelyn Van Oorschot, Ernie Micco, Luke Zerga, Frank Smollen, Al Parmisano and Herman Christen.

Given for the benefit of El Carmelo Drum corps, the party will recreate the spirit of the Old West. Most of the dancers are expected to come garbed in country style. Johnny Dell's union orchestra will play tunes both old and new.

Admission prices are nominal and refreshments will be available. The public is cordially invited.

Cash Value

According to figures presented at the Conference on Child Health, a boy at birth has an economic value of $2,333 in a family with an income of $2,500 a year. At 18 this same boy is worth $28,654. It has cost $7,238 to rear him. The value is estimated by computing his probable income through his working life.

Signers die

Two signers of the Declaration of Independence died on an anniversary of the historic date of signing, July 4.

Homeless Children Whist and Bazaar

Sponsoring their annual benefit for homeless children, El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, Native Daughters of the Golden West, will hold a public whist and bazaar at 8:30 p. m. next Wednesday at Masonic hall.

It is planned to use fifty dollars of the proceeds as an outright donation toward the support of homeless children cared for by the Native Sons and Daughters. These children deserve the help of everyone, according to members of the committee.

There will be many outstanding awards at the party, including a substantial cash prize. There will be no admission charge; score cards are nominal in price. Free coffee and doughnuts will be served.

The committee in charge expects the affair to be one of the most successful whists this year. The public is cordially invited to extend their support.

Canada's Gold

The value of Canada's gold production in 1938 was equal to 51 per cent of the total value of all metals and 37 per cent of the total value of the entire output of the Canadian mineral industry.

Harvey Lake Dam

The Harvey lake dam in the Connecticut river basin in Vermont is a project which has been proposed for flood control. The project has been investigated by the United States army but no further action has been taken.

simple. We stopped at Lucca Ravlioli company and remarked how delicious the broccoli looked, which it did, and how inexpensive the artichokes were, which they were (10c a dozen) and what a good special the coffee was at two pounds for 50c. We also found some unusually nice meat cuts there, and all in all, felt that our time was well spent.

● The skies were still serene at the Mission creamery, where we said how much we appreciated the fact that the milkman from the Mission creamery was always on time and we never had to dash off to work without our morning dish of oatmeal.

● It was at the Hilltop Lodge that trouble really began. John and Sally were sitting blissfully absorbed by one of Hilltop's delectable fried chickens, when Mrs.
Zaso came over and invited us to dinner the next evening.

● The time has come, we thought, and shut our eyes. It's all for her own good. "We'd love to," we told her honestly, "but we really can't eat any more of that badly-cooked food you serve. That old-fashioned stove you have turns out biscuits that—well, frankly, John and I had such indigestion the last time. And there's really no excuse for it," we hurried on,
"when A. M. Harrison is selling new Wedgewood stoves that cook like a dream."

● Mrs. Zaso's face was frozen.
We hastily veered the subject.
"But won't you come over and have dinner with us instead?" we inquired. "We bought the loveliest beef roast from Farmers Meat company—and you know how tender the meat from there always is, and what good gravy it makes—"

● But Mrs. Zaso violently proclaimed that she had a previous engagement, leaving us practically in tears and John staring at us in an alarmed and outraged fashion.

ion. We remorsefully wished we had been so nice that butter wouldn't have melted in our mouth. (Which reminds us that Robertson's Egg Store have some good specials on butter this week—and butter from Robertson's is always sweet and fresh.)

● Still, the idea of a party appealed to us. It would be a lovely chance to tell all our friends the truth, for which they would be sure to thank us in the end, the Reformist said. Milo's was having a sensational sale of Del Monte canned goods, which saved us so much money, we felt we could afford a party. (Milo's also has some of the best meat specials we've seen all week. Don't fail to see their ad on page 8—and you'll also be glad we told you to look at the vegetable specials. Flash: Ducks at Milo's.)

● Society note: Sally's party flops. The Reformist sat in one corner, smiling sardonically and eating away at the delicious caramels we had picked up at Westlake Market for only 15c a pound. We felt sardonic ourselves, as a Man should, (but secretly we were glad that the other specials from Westlake—squash and sweet potatoes—were safely stowed away on the pantry shelf.)

● Our first victim was Mrs. Jowie, who always tells everyone how clever Sally is about making over old clothes so that no one would ever imagine! So now we didn't try to beat around the bush.

"My dear," we told her kindly, "that dress you're wearing has a frayed, faded look. Why don't you send your things to the Beeson Cleaners, where you will be sure they won't be ruined by poor cleaning?"

● We're afraid Mrs. Jowie will never learn to like the truth. She left shortly afterward, while we were tactfully telling Mr. Grouch that he had never been known to spend a penny or have a good time in his life. "The Native Daughters are sponsoring a benefit whist and bazaar for homeless children next Wednesday night," we concluded, "that deserves all the support it can get. And their big Barn Dance tomorrow night is guaranteed to make even the oldest and crankiest of people have the time of their lives!"

● When we overheard Mr. Smith telling about a new home he had bought, we really were sorry and told him why. He had been badly rooked. When he sees the beautiful homes that George Hammer is offering at just one-half the price, he will be heartbick. Hint: if any of your friends are in the market for a new home, you'll really do them a favor by telling them about George Hammer.

● Just then we caught Aunt Molly reaching for a huge piece of feathery coconut cake we had bought from the Geneva Bakery. "I'm sorry, Aunt Molly," we said firmly, taking it away, "but that's your third piece."

● We thought for a minute that

THE MODERN GAS RANGE

CP RANGE WAS DEMANDED BY HOUSEWIVES

It is perfectly natural that the American housewife is envied by women of other lands, not alone for the freedom which American home appliances provide, but also for the American housewife's ability to make her wants heard by manufacturers.

As an example, take the most universal of all kitchen aids—the gas range. Mrs. Housewife looked at her stove, pondered about it, and decided that it needed a few improvements. She spoke to her neighbor—then to a few more—and testing kitchens all over the country began to hum, while research engineers burned much midnight oil figuring the method by which Mrs. Housewife could be served.

She knew what she wanted, and industrial research laboratories were hers to command. She wanted a gas range that would save time, fuel and food. She wanted a gas range that was practically automatic throughout so that she wouldn't have to play nurse to an invalid stove any longer. She wanted an oven that conserved all the heat within its walls and didn't spread it all over the kitchen. When she got through making herself heard, Mrs. Housewife had handed engineers the biggest order they had ever tackled.

If a gas range could be devised that would answer every one of her very strict requirements, said Mrs. Housewife, it would spell cooking perfection, and be called the marvel of the age.

And that's what she's calling it today. For the engineers produced just the gas range that she had ordered, combining more than twenty-two distinct modern improvements and at a cost of over one million dollars. So that you may know this remarkable product of Mrs. Housewife's desires, it bears a Certified Performance seal of approval.

Mirage Explained

A mirage is due to conditions existing in the atmosphere. As a result of deviation of the rays of light caused by refraction and reflection, objects seen with the eye appear in unusual positions and often multiple or inverted. One cause of a mirage in the desert is the diminution of the density of the air near the surface of the earth often produced by the radiation of heat, the denser stratum being thus placed above instead of, as is usually the case, below the rarer.

Oldest Company

At Falun in Sweden is the oldest commercial company in the world. It has owned a mine there for 700 years and extracted from it over half a million tons of copper, more than 15 tons of silver and a ton of gold.

LAMB FOR NEW IDEAS IN THE MENU

Suggestions for Unusual Cuts and Dishes Given By Home Economist

Do you become tired of preparing foods in the same way day after day, week after week, month after month? So does every housewife! Cooking is likely to become boring unless one experiments with new foods and new ways of preparing them occasionally—unless one goes adventuring now and then.

Lamb is not a new food, in fact, it has been a spring favorite for many, many years, but not always has it been available the whole year 'round,' as it is today. Nor does every housewife realize the number of lamb cuts which she can use to add interest to meal preparation and to make her

Robert Donat Plays Schoolmaster Role

"Goodbye, Mr. Chips," James Hilton's charming novel of the life of an English school teacher, is now playing at the Daly City theatre in the long-awaited screen adaptation, which brings to audiences, following his triumph in "The Citadel," Robert Donat, together with Greer Garson, beautiful English actress.

Third of the pictures filmed in M-G-M's English studios, "Goodbye, Mr. Chips," tells the story of a kindly schoolmaster, starting his career in his twenties, becoming a veritable institution in a big English school and shaping the careers of boys destined to become great men. As "The Citadel" dealt with medical ethics, so the new picture goes deeply into the heart of education.

Donat brings deep understanding to the role, which carries him through four periods. His makeup is enhanced by the psychology which makes the character fairly live at each age. Miss Garson is a compellingly skillful actress as well as beautiful. Terry Kilburn, the appealing youngster of "Lord Jeff" and "A Christmas Carol," has an interesting role, playing four generations of boys who attend the school, grow up, and send their sons back.

Dramatic highlights include the rescue of the heroine in the Tyrolean Alps and a spectacular air raid during the World War, with football and cricket games at famous English schools adding thrilling and exciting moments.

Companion feature on the new bill is "6000 Enemies," a compelling drama of prison life expertly enacted by Walter Pidgeon, Rita Johnson, Paul Kelly and Nat Pendleton.

Area Comparison

The population of Canada is 16,000,000 people, and that of Europe, which has about the same area, is 450,000,000.

Greer Garson and Robert Donat in "Goodbye, Mr. Chips"

House Trailers
Approximately 800,000 house trailers are in use in the United States

Fashion Flashes

Tunic "lines" come in for day and evening.

Very lovely old fashioned fabrics are favored this season.

There is evidence that the slim silhouette will come in.

Lace accessories adorn many of the newer frocks.

It's a season of elegance and feminine whims and fancies.

Ornate embroideries, sumptuous furs, heirloom jewelry enrich the mode.

Fashion's insistence on "hips" and "slim waistline" call for new corsetry technique.

Black or white wool sports coats lavishly embroidered are lined with gayest plaid.

Spanish influence vies with military in hat fashions.

Air Plans

It is planned to connect Japanese airways with the Mandated islands via Guam, thus providing a link with the American clipper service across the Pacific ocean.

Keep Fit!

Eat less heavy food—drink more milk! That's a splendid formula for keeping fit. It's cooling, refreshing and furnishes the necessary elements for body building and maintenance more perfectly than any other one food! Doctors say: "At least a quart a day for every child and every adult!"

Monte Carlo

"The Man Who Broke the Bank at Monte Carlo" was an Englishman, Charles Wells. After a somewhat shady career in England, he went to Monte Carlo and in July, 1891, entered the casino with 4,000 pounds, obtained under false pretense. On his first day he won a quarter of a million francs. He immediately became a popular character in the municipality, but in 1892 after a return to England was arrested and tried for obtaining money by fraud and sentenced to eight years' penal servitude. After his release he changed his name to Davenport, but continued his swindling operations, served two more prison terms and finally died in 1922.

THE RECORD SNAPSHOTS

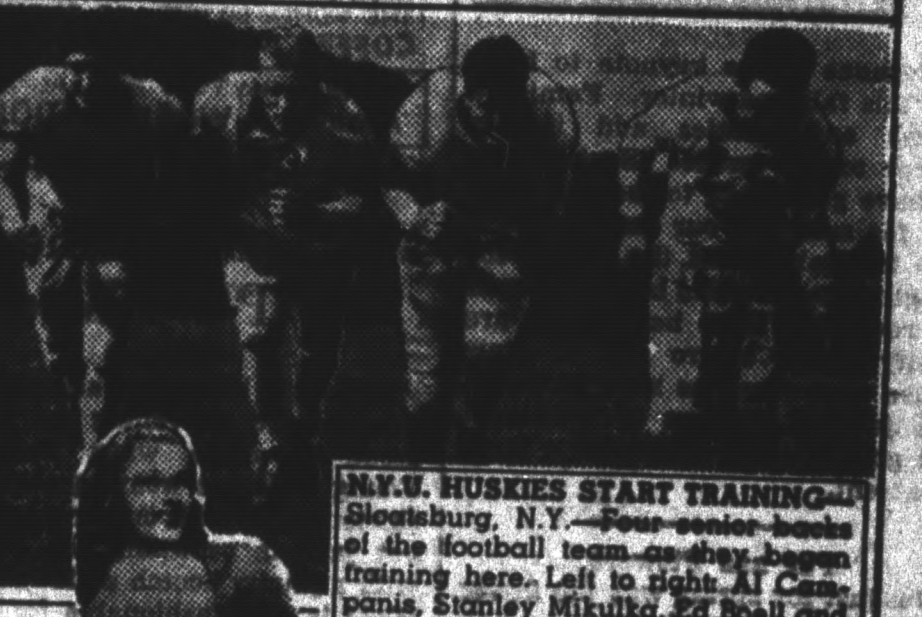

ALL OVER HIM—This little four-year-old boy has made friends with two Australian flying opossums who climb all over his head with joy.

As president of Safety Razor Co., Inc., the world's largest producer of electric dry shavers, he says 40,000,000 Americans are still in the "horse and buggy" era of whisker control.

Jeweled Buttons

Elegance is the keynote to fashions this fall and winter. Feminine whims and fancies add infinite charm to the mode. Seeing that we have gone back to the gay nineties for much of our inspiration it was inevitable that the vogue for big glittering jeweled buttons should be revived. And here they are glorifying the bolero suit of char-trouse wool crepe as here pictured. The jeweled buttons of amethyst and gold are matched with a lapel ornament.

Fur and Flowers

Not just for spring was the flower trim which bloomed on your hat, for two French designers are showing velvety flowers on their newest fur hats.

Platform Shoe Is Highly Important

You are going to see a good many platform shoes again this fall. Newer and more sensible ones than last year. The important platform is the pencil-thin one, about three-sixteenths of an inch thick.

In fact, this platform is considered so important that it is going on shoes for all occasions—for country, for dressy afternoon and for evening wear. But wait until you see them. They are full of surprises.

Paris Ties a Bow

Paris designers treat bows in every conceivable fashion, not only terminating draped effects on the hips and bustle effects at the backs of gowns with them, but also using them for evening headdresses made of tulle, with long, flowing ends.

Mode Brightened By Plaid Woolens

Strikingly handsome and gay plaid woolens are enlivening the present mode in more ways than one. Young girls are wearing plaid wool skirts topped with cunning snug velvet jackets crowning the costume with a jaunty Scotch plaid little hat. Plaid is also fashionable for jacket suits and the topcoats of plaid showing this season are gorgeous to behold. Some are made in soft dress-maker style; others are strictly tailored. The monotone coat lined with plaid is also a style winner.

One of the newest notes sounded is the use of plaid in an accessory way. Milliners are making hat and bag sets of bright wool plaids that set off the new black coats and dresses to perfection. When the plaids trim monotone forest greens or browns or the new wine colored wools they carry the costume color in their own weaves highlighted with multi-colored plaided patternings.

Faithful Dog

In front of the Shibuya station at Tokyo, Japan, there is a bronze statue erected in honor of Hachiko, a faithful dog. His master was a teacher at the Imperial Agricultural college and every morning the dog accompanied him to the station, meeting him on his return each evening. After his death Hachiko went to the station every day for seven years.

Style Notes

Coachman hat is smart fashion. Military influence reflects throughout fashions of today.

Spectacular bib necklace is a jewelry "must" this season.

The new sleeves crush below the elbow.

Vivid scarlet geraniums is the new idea for boutonnières.

The hat of fur is theme of outstanding importance.

Jersey dress with inset bands of gaily colorful jersey is a junior favorite.

Suede - with - wool costumes please the college girl.

Evening capes have gold-embroidered epaulets.

Flared Skirt Is Still a Favorite

Despite the fact that the big news of the Paris season is the straight skirt, and practically every designer shows it in one version or another, there is plenty of evidence that the popular flared skirt is far from finished. Sponsored by such important names as Lelong, Molyneux and Mainbocher, it has a firm place in the mode and is being shown with a new sophistication.

The flare doesn't start at the belt in schoolgirl fullness but is controlled and fitted to well over the hip. Individuality and newness are achieved by Lelong not only through the lower and more intricate flare but by blouse and belt details as well.

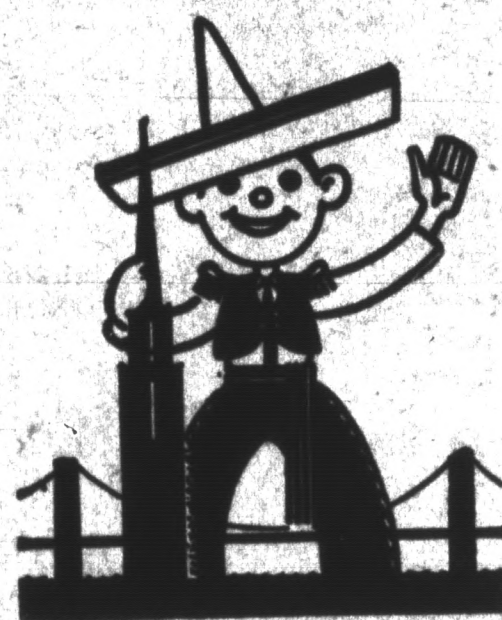

Coq Feathers on Hats for Autumn

Hats this season go to all sorts of lengths as regards crowns but the majority seem content with small brims. Coq feathers in dramatic colors cascade from wee little tricornes that already beckon alluringly from Fifth avenue windows in New York.

The snood is still prominently in the picture and turbans of chiffon velvet in jewel colors will give the necessary "ummph" to fall outfits.

Scouting the Shops

Aunt Molly was going to explode, so we hastily turned to Mrs. Femme who was asking everyone about her new shade of lipstick.

● We hesitated for a moment, but the Reformist's eye was upon us. Were we a coward? No! "It's much too bright," we said regretfully. "In fact it looks like paint. But," we added brightly, "if you're in the market for paint, don't forget that the Colma Hardware are having some really wonderful specials this week—good for painting everything—except faces," we said.

● Mrs. Femme was sputtering helplessly. In order to cover up what threatened to be a most embarrassing silence we turned on our new Zenith radio from Byrne's Radio Store. If we do say so, ourselves, it's a honey, and guaranteed to please even guests who have just been told the truth.

● Sitting over in the corner, Mr. Brown, who had evidently caught the spirit of Truth, was telling Mrs. Brown how to cut down on the grocery bill. So we joined the discussion by mentioning how Daly City Cut Rate Market is offering ten pounds of sugar for only 58c this week; how fresh garden spinach is only 5c a pound there. Mr. Brown at this point savagely said that was just what he had finished telling Mrs. Brown. So we never did get to mention the special dollar combination that is really a headliner at the Cut Rate this week.

● The party, we felt, was becoming a bit glum, so we cheerfully tried to start a discussion about Daly City day at the Fair, the one day out of the sixteen left that no one wants to miss. But our guests, by this time, had collected their wits and coats and hats, and we were forced to listen to some Truth ourselves.

● After the door had slammed shut for the last time, we were feeling so faint that we began to wonder if Edwards Drug Store would have anything to help us. We always take all our prescriptions there, and thanks to Edwards' careful work in filling them, we usually feel fit as a fiddle immediately. (Edwards has castoria, wash cloths, toothbrushes and many other things at special prices this week. And have you tried his candy chews or miniature chocolates? They're really delicious).

● Hearing a queer noise in the kitchen, we decided to throw out the burglar before throwing ourselves into the ocean. But it was only the Reformist, raiding the ice-box. He had found some corned beef from the Vista Grande Meat market, and assured us solemnly that it was the Truth that he had never tasted better.

● Truth! we thought bitterly. And we sent him to the Daly City theatre to learn the result of Truth. The name of the picture is "6000 Enemies." P. S. And they don't thank you in the end!

meals more enjoyed. So Inez S. Willson, home economist, suggests some of the more unusual lamb cuts. Try these and then go adventuring for more.

Lamb Pin-wheels

Have a lamb breast boned, then spread with bulk sausage and roll, after the fashion of a jelly roll. Fasten the roll with wooden skewers and cut into thick slices between the skewers. Lay in a baking dish and place uncovered in a moderate oven and cook for thirty to forty minutes. Then pour 1 cup of tomato juice over all, cover and cook slowly for half an hour longer, or until the pin-wheels are tender. Serve with the tomato sauce.

Lamb breast also may be rolled as described above, but instead of cutting into pin-wheels, it often is left as a roast and cooked in one piece.

Stuffed Lamb Shoulder Chops

Have lamb shoulder chops cut one to two inches thick. Remove the bone and from the cavity made cut slits so that pockets are formed. Fill these and the cavity made by removing the bone with a savory bread dressing. Lay bacon slices over the top and bake chops

Farm Markets
For sales at home and abroad, $35,000,000 acres can supply all present available markets. Crops, normally, are harvested from 35,000,000 acres. This means that the American farmers have about 25,000,000 surplus acres for which they lack markets.

in a moderate oven (350° F.) until done about one hour.

Spley Lamb Chops

Marinate the lamb chops in a spicy French dressing for several hours before cooking. Thoroughly preheat the broiling oven with the regulator set to "broil." Place the chops so that there is a distance of about three inches between the top of meat and the source of heat. Broil until the chops are browned on one side, then turn and finish the broiling on the second side. Season with salt and pepper and serve immediately.
